Parking Lot Blacktopped

Blacktopping of the west portion of the Village parking lot is finished, says Mayor Murrill Cunningham, and the lot is ready for traffic.

Blacktopping on the Shopping Plaza is under way. The barriers closing the west parking lot are being left in place to cut down traffic until the plaza blacktopping is completed, says the mayor. The lot will soon be open.

It is expected that the gravel base on Spafford St. will be completed by Thursday night (tonight), at which time the street will be open for traffic. Curbing will be installed, but blacktopping can not be done until next spring. State requirements call for a settling period before blacktopping.

Burglars Stock Up On Women's Shoes

Watch out for "hot" shoes! Hundreds of pairs of shoes were stolen Sunday night from Joseph's Bootery on Highway 32 at the Illinois state line.

Owner Joseph Petrelli, Kenosha, estimated about $5,000 worth of shoes were stolen. The burglars evidently knew something about women's shoes—they took off there were in sizes 6 to 8, the most popular sizes.

However, they also took several odd shoes, failing to take the mate. Summer shoes were passed up, but the burglars took the entire stock of men's snow boots.

Canned Goods Are Admission Price To Legion Party

Canned goods will be the admission price to a party at the Lake Region Roller rink in Antioch next Thursday, Nov. 19.

The party is sponsored by American Legion Post No. 748 of Antioch. It's a Thanksgiving party, and the canned goods will help make up baskets of food for needy families at Thanksgiving.

Youngsters from the Baptist Children's Home and Allendale School for Boys will be admitted to the party free. Activities start at 7 p.m.

Teachers Seek Better Business Ed. Courses

Dora Beattie, chairman of the Business Department of Antioch Community High School, attended the conference of the Illinois Business Education Assoc. held at Springfield on Nov. 6 and 7.

Purpose of the conference is to aid in developing more flexible and meaningful courses in business education in high schools and colleges.

Five hundred business education teachers try to determine the most important content in the various areas of business courses.

Methods and procedures of the various areas were discussed to help build more effective Business Education programs.

Two of the most important matters discussed at the conference," Miss Beattie said, "was the problem of how to teach youngsters automation and data processing, and discussion of the new Federal Vocational Educational Act."

"The highly complex and expensive data processing machines which have become so important in business today are too expensive to be available to the student. We concluded we could teach use of the machines, supplemented by field trips to business offices."

Vote-Counting Nears Finish

The Lake County vote-counters handling the big orange ballots for the election-at-large of state representatives were expected to complete their job Wednesday (yesterday) according to a spokesman at the office of Gar Leaf.

Canvassing of the votes will start Friday, and is expected to take about ten days. No official results will be released until after the canvass.

However, there is apparently no doubt that the Democratic victory swept the 118 Democratic candidates for the House into office. It remains only to be seen which of the Republican candidates will complete the roster.

Incumbent candidates were thought to have the advantage of being listed near the top of the ballot. However, it appears that more people marked from the bottom up, favoring the Blue Ribbon candidates.

Earl Eisenhower is apparently the favorite candidate on the Republican side, while other well-known names such as Adlai Stevenson III and John Clinton Youle are also doing well.

Although Democrats will rule the House, Republicans still have a majority in the Illinois Senate.

Wary vote-counters and election judges will have to pay Social Security and withholding tax on their earnings for their election chores. It was announced by Bernard Barnett, District Manager of the Waukegan Social Security office. The ruling was made by the Attorney General.

Some counties, Barnett said, are asking election workers to fill out their own Form W-2 at the time they receive their pay checks.

Mrs. James named Mrs. M. Robert Schroeder as chairman of the Membership committee; Mrs. Moore St. Roman, Ways and Means; Mrs. James McMillen, Social Chairman; Mrs. Carl Neuman, Program and Mrs. Joseph Boffs, Publicity.

Mrs. Harry Cochran was named Society representative to the Countryside Hospital Association and Mrs. M. R. Schroeder is the alternate.

The next meeting of the society will be held Monday, Ingleside Fire Station. A Christmas party will be held.

Appoints Chaplain Of Sheriff's Office

Sheriff Charles E. Larson has announced the appointment of Father Paul J. Cull as chaplain for the sheriff's office. He is replacing Father Edmond Hood, former pastor of St. Ignatius Church in Antioch, who was transferred to another parish.

Father Cull has been the assistant pastor at Immaculate Conception Parish in Waukegan since 1955. He previously served as chaplain for North Chicago Police department while assigned to the Holy Family parish in North Chicago.

Sheriff Larson stated that he is pleased that Father Cull accepted the appointment. As Chaplain he will serve as the spiritual leader

Mr. Horan attended Antioch schools, Lake Forest College, DePaul University and the U. of Illinois. He entered engineering service with the Government right after receiving his degree from the U. of Ill. He served a short stretch in the army during World War I.

Mr. Horan and his wife, Margaret, are leaving on a long vacation in Colorado.

Traffic Deaths Up 6% Over 1963

October traffic deaths in Illinois totaled 195, according to provisional reports released by the Division of Highways and the State Highway Police. This is a reduction of 11 per cent from the 220 deaths in the same month last year.

Late reports and delayed deaths have now increased the August fatality total to 217 and the September fatality total of 191. The death toll for the first 10 months, which now stands at 1,775, represents an increase of 6 per cent over the 1,668 for the same period last year.

Warm, Dry Weather Is Nov. Forecast

The U. S. Weather Bureau 30-day outlook for November in Illinois is for precipitation to average near normal in the area west of a Moline-Springfield-Golconda approximate line, and less than normal in the area to the north and east of this line.

Temperatures for the period are expected to average from one to four degrees above normal in the southern half of Illinois and more than four degrees above in the northern half.

Father Cull will receive no compensation for his services as Chaplain, the Sheriff stated.

Voters O.K. Tax Raise, Addition To G.L. School

Voters of the Grass Lake School District approved a building program and a raise in the educational tax rate last Saturday, November 7.

The referendum to approve the issuance of bonds to the amount of $139,000.00 to finance the construction of a gymnasium and four classrooms was approved by a vote of 251 to 105. An 18c raise in the educational tax rate was approved, 237 to 209. There were 456 total votes cast in the election. According to Mrs. Charlotte Queen, secretary of the board, there are 889 eligible voters in the district.

William L. Stewart, principal of the school, said he was grateful to the people of the District for approving the expenditures. At the present time, he said, the school board hopes to start construction on the addition in March, and hopes to have the building ready for occupancy by the next school term.

A kindergarten class will be established next fall, Mr. Stewart said. He urged parents to watch this paper for registration dates for kindergarten. School officials plan to have kindergarten registration early so that the approximate number of pupils will be known.

Grass Lake School district voters had previously rejected the two propositions which they approved last Saturday. This year, lack of space necessitated again using the old school house for one class. The building had been used for a Scout House for some years.

Before the passage of Saturday's educational tax raise, Grass Lake had had the lowest educational tax rate in the county—65c. The 18c raise boosts the rate up to 83c.

It had been over ten years since the educational tax rate of the school had been raised. A deficit of $5,000.00 existed at the close of the last school year. Board members estimated this year's deficit would amount to about $22,000.00.

Robert Hart is president of the Board of Education of the school; Charlotte Queen, secretary; other board members are Lawrence Yopp, Porter Larson, Charles Smith, Earl Beese and Walter Johnson.

Freshmen Aid In War On Poverty

"Bundle Day" Drive at Antioch Community High School will start on November 16 and extend through Nov. 20.

This is the 23rd annual drive of the Save the Children Federation to collect wearable used clothing. This year's drive comes at a time when President Johnson has re-emphasized our responsibility toward the children living in poverty in the Southern Appalachian Mountains, where this clothing will be distributed.

The freshman class at the High School are sponsors of the drive. A center will be set up on the main floor of the high school for collection of the clothes. Representatives of the freshman class will be present before and after school to help bundle any clothes received.

Wearable used clothing is needed, particularly summer and winter coats, dresses, suits and underwear. The clothing need not be in perfect condition, but it must be sturdy and usable.

Many children in these poor areas can not attend school because of lack of clothing. "Any donations will be most appreciated," Linda Mullen, teacher supervising the project, said.

Although the aim of the Drive is primarily to collect children's clothing, clothing for adults is also acceptable.

Water District To Observe 14th Anniv.

The Lake County Public Water District is observing an anniversary this Saturday.

Saturday, November 14, is the 14th anniversary of the first public endorsement of the Lake County Public Water District. On that date in 1950 the County Board of Supervisors unanimously passed a resolution endorsing formation of the Water District.

Among the Whereas's in the resolution is stated the reason for the formation of the district and its aim.

The resolution states that the ground water table in Lake County is getting lower each year; much of the water now available through individual wells is not desirable for drinking purposes; and the Lake County Water District proposed to obtain all its water from Lake Michigan and pump pure water to all parts of the county.

Edmund F. Vos, of Antioch, is a member of the Board of trustees of the district. Kilian Schwager, Bion, is chairman; others are John J. Noel, Mundelein; Gilbert Curran, Lake Bluff; Jerome C. Martin, Gurnee; Vance Ray, Libertyville; and Gary Robinson, Winthrop Harbor.

Tavern Re-Opens On Appeal To State

A tavern at the county line between Lake and McHenry counties, closed for selling liquor to minors, has reopened on appeal.

The Lake County Liquor Commission last week issued an order closing the Driftwood Lodge and Marina in Cuba Township. The place had been raided on Oct. 16 by sheriff's deputies and state troopers, and owner Kenneth Nelson and 33 other persons, mostly teenagers, arrested.

The tavern appealed the case to the State Liquor Board. Pending hearing of the appeal, the tavern can remain open.

MARTIN R. DEATHERAGE

Transfer Wire Chief

Walter R. Deatherage, wire chief of Antioch for the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., has been transferred to division staff supervisor in the North Shore Division plant supervisor's office in Chicago.

Deatherage's career with the company began as a telephone repairman in Rockford. He has had many assignments in the department that installs and maintains telephone equipment.

He is financial chairman of the Grayslake Scholarship Fund, treasurer of the Lake County School Board Association, and a member of the advisory committee for the Tri-County School Board Association. He is past president and secretary of the Grayslake Grade School Board and a member of the Grayslake Chamber of Commerce.

During World War II Deatherage served in the U. S. Army. He spent time in France and Germany, where he worked in the adjutant general's department as a master sergeant.

He and his wife, Helen, reside at 95 Harvey Ave., Grayslake. They have a son, Richard, who is a student at Bradley University and worked for the telephone company last summer in Waukegan; a daughter, Anne, a telephone information operator in Libertyville; and a son, Larry.

Dog Shot, May Be "Panther"

Is the "black panther" dead?

Or has he moved to another area? The mysterious animal has been the subject of rumors for some time now. Several persons in Kenosha County reported seeing him. No one got close enough, or saw him clearly enough, to be sure exactly what he was. But the rumors persisted that he appeared to be a cat-like animal about as large as a dog.

The rumors spread to the Antioch area in the last two or three weeks, though no one ever definitely reported seeing the animal.

Kenosha County sheriff's deputies killed a large black and dark brown dog last Sunday that they think may be the "panther." The dog was on a farm near the one where the "panther" was last seen.

John Hancock, Rt. 3, Kenosha, called the sheriff last Sunday to report he had a vicious dog locked in his corn crib. Sheriff's deputies killed the dog, which appeared to be a cross between a German shepherd and a collie.

Now, however, there are rumors that the "panther" was seen near Richmond, Ill. A farmer near there reports seeing the animal and taking a shot at it with a revolver. At another farm, a sheep was found eviscerated.

Forsythia Bush Blooms In November

A forsythia bush in the yard of Mrs. Howard Ensign, Millburn, is in bloom, she reports.

Evidently deluded by the spring-like weather, the bush started blooming last week. Forsythia bushes normally bear yellow flowers early in spring. This one, says Mrs. Ensign, has never before been fooled by warm fall weather.

Looked at your forsythia bush recently.

EDITORIAL

4 Years To Mull It Over

The tumult and the shouting die, and Lyndon B. Johnson is president of the U. S. for the next four years.

Now comes the news analysts and party politicians explaining to us why we voted as we did. This is even more irritating to most of us than some of the campaign speeches we've suffered through in the last weeks.

Most of us know quite well why we voted as we did, and it is rarely for one specific reason. It is, rather, an echo of our summary of the overall beliefs and ability of the man, gleaned from what we can learn of him.

It's unfortunate that the ultra-conservative, backward-looking wing of the Republican party cannot accept the edict of the voters and turn control of the party over to the more moderate group. A strong Republican party is needed in this country. It will not develop until party leaders are developed who can convince the majority of voters that they are as concerned with the welfare of those voters as they are with the welfare of big business and the well-heeled; until they can put up candidates who can advance a more original and constructive solution to world tensions than the Monroe Doctrine or Castro-like belligerence.

It is just as foolish to assume that the mass of voters want Medicare, or social welfare, or hand-outs. Millions of hard-working, middle-class Americans voted for Lyndon Johnson. They know full well that they must pay twice over for any benefit they receive from the government, whether it's local government or national. Yes, they'd like to see less and cheaper government. But they're mindful that there are millions worse off than they, and problems that must be solved. No one is safe in this country if hungry and rebellious mobs roam the streets. The problems of the underprivileged can not be dismissed with a meager dole and bland assumptions that anyone who wishes to work can solve his own problems.

The Republican party has four years to mull over the recent disaster, and to decide on a policy for the future. They might do well to spend a good share of that four years talking to non-Republicans, instead of gathering together to nod agreement with each other.

Danger—Housewife at Work

Death lurks in the kitchen and bathroom for those unwary housewives who carelessly mix cleaning agents with chlorine bleaches.

Two housewives were recently overcome with gases that originated when they added chlorine bleach to a toilet-bowl cleaner. One died. One had a long stay in the hospital.

A poisonous chlorine gas, is liberated when chlorine bleach is added to an acid-producing substance, such as a toilet-bowl cleaner, or just plain vinegar. Mixing the bleach with some other products, such as ammonia or lye, a highly irritating gas is released which can cause serious injury or death.

House wives are sometimes inclined to think that a better cleansing action will result if a little bleach is added to other cleaning agents. Actually, it often produces poor results.

As few housewives have the chemical knowledge to know which ingredients are safe and effective when mixed, the only safe rule is to read instructions, follow them and don't mix cleansers. Many scouring powders also contain chlorine, and should not be mixed with other cleaners.

Don't mix bleaches with toilet bowl cleaners, ammonia, lye, rust remover, vinegar or oven cleaners. In short, don't mix bleaches with any other cleaning compounds.

Now that the campaigning is over it looks as though the Republicans will spend the next four years talking about what they should have done and should do to re-establish the party as something other than taken resistance to the triumphant Democrats.

Trouble with politicians, they get in the habit of making everything complicated. If they get up and told the simple truth about things, they couldn't fool the voters. Also, there would be little opportunity to impress the public with their brilliance if they didn't make things sound complex.

Unfortunately, they get so used to thinking this way that they become convinced that even the simplest problems are very involved.

Now, what's the surest way to insure a Republican victory? More Republicans, of course.

And how do you produce Republicans? By seeing to it that more people acquire property, business and or a bank account.

Democrats automatically become Republicans when they get enough money so that they're afraid the government is going to put a big bite on them.

The Democrats are well aware of this simple truth. A poor man is automatically a Democrat. He's bound to be. Republicans are always talking about giving business a fair chance, cutting down relief costs, and how men should be independent and fend for themselves.

He's tried being independent, and found it means hard work and little reward. He starts muttering when some-

While we watch the resurfacing of Spafford St., and the completion of a building in the new Plaza, plus new growth in our industrial area, it remains a puzzle how downtown co-operation can remain at its lowest ebb. Perhaps Main St. U. S. A. is suffering from a dread disease, but instead of committing euthanasia, let's put our analytical minds together and find a cure for this creeping malady.

one tries to tell him that his employer deserves a better break.

He's looking for a candidate who will promise him a break. And the Democrats do it.

Of course, they have to deliver something after they are elected. There's where the Democrats' real brilliance shows.

They give the voter something. Maybe a raise in minimum wage, a helping hand to the unions, a raise in relief allotments. The voter's grateful. Now he's got more money, and he'll vote Democratic again.

However, the Democrats have to keep a nice balance. They have to give the voters something, but they mustn't let him start amassing money or he'll become a Republican.

So they take back part of what they gave him by voting through some new tax or a tax raise. This finances the benefit they instituted for his good, keeps him from getting too much money, and he still has a little left so he thinks he can make the payment on a refrigerator or a new car. He's happy, and he'll remain a Democrat.

So, Republicans, if you want more votes, start dividing up the goodies. Or, at least, appear to.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

The Republican Party at all levels, national, state, and county is due for an overhaul if it is to remain a vital factor on the American scene if any lesson at all is to be read into the results of last week's balloting.

More than anything else the GOP needs strong, aggressive leadership attuned to the problems, aspirations, and general attitude of the mass of voters.

The Republican Party must make a determined, non-partisanizing attempt to attract the support of racial and religious minority groups. It must rid itself of the idea that it is an exclusive white-collar club with a membership limited to the White Anglo-Saxon Protestants.

If Republicans really fear "creeping Socialism," centralized government, the loss of personal freedom to an encroaching bureaucracy, and federal handouts, they must take the initiative in putting these words and attitudes into action.

It isn't enough for a rock-ribbed Republican farmer to stop at the general store and decry the wasteful, restrictive farm policies of the Democrats and then continue on to the bank and deposit a hefty Department of Agriculture check for not planting crops.

It isn't enough for local municipal officials to campaign as Republicans and protest the programs of federal aid to cities and counties and then go into session and vote to accept all the money available from the government on the theory that "if we don't get our share some other city or county will."

Republican businessmen can't continue to advocate a return to a completely free economy and then turn to the federal government for help because the business section of their community is wasting away for want of healthy transfusions of fresh money.

In short, if the Republican Party wants to attract enough votes to return to power, it must find out what the voters want and promise it to them even though it may be the wrong remedy.

After they are in power the Republicans may be able to divert the "mainstream" into the channels they deem proper for the future of the state and nation, but first of all they have to get into office.

The confusion in the GOP at the Lake County level was never more apparent than during the recent campaign when the two candidates for Circuit Judge appeared to be running in a primary against each other.

When it appeared that State's Attorney Bruno W. Stanczak was in trouble because of sizeable defections among nominal Republicans, including many precinct committeemen, there was nobody to come to the fore and say, "Stanczak is our candidate and we are all behind him."

The lack of coordination was graphically portrayed on Election Night at the GOP Central Committee headquarters, which should have been the center of activity, but was virtually deserted while individual candidates were set up in various parts of the county and Waukegan receiving return on a hit or miss basis.

The election of Judge Philip Yager to a full term as Circuit Judge can be written off in some quarters as "just one of those things," but his vote coupled with the narrow escape of Stanczak should be a warning to the GOP leadership in Lake County.

Township and municipal elections in the spring will give the Democrats in Lake County another opportunity to increase their strength in these areas as a base for a stronger assault on the courthouse unless some Republican leader steps forward with a plan for bringing together the numerous splinter groups within the county GOP.

The Republican Party in the past has always been based at the grass roots," but lately there has been a tendency on the part of GOP leaders to try to build from the top and let the largesse of their political generosity trickle down to the pawns in the state houses, the court-houses, and city halls.

The strength of any political party ultimately rests with the people since the local elected officials are those in closest contact with the people they should be the key members of the party structure, not poor relations who are ignored in the favors of the more glamorous state and national candidates.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to express my thanks to the Antioch News for their support in the recent referendum which was passed at the Grass Lake School, District 38. Your publishing of my letter "Why I Will Vote Yes" in its entirety, I am sure clarified many points for the voters. We are grateful for the support of the community in passing this Referendum.

Sincerely,

Earl J. Deese

The Grass Lake School referendum for a gym and four classrooms and an increase in the educational tax has passed. I am very proud of "my" P.T.A. and I want to thank the room mothers who called the parents, the mothers who offered to drive voters to the polls, and all the parents who did get out to vote.

But especially our entire P.T.A. wishes to thank the people who voted "yes" who do not have children in our school. We really do appreciate that you care enough to vote an increase in your taxes so that our children may have a better education.

"Mr. Toastmaster and Ladies and Gentlemen," said the famous raconteur as he rose: "Before dinner Mark Twain and myself made an agreement to trade speeches. He has just delivered my speech, and I thank you for the pleasant manner in which you received it. I regret to say that I have lost the notes to his speech and cannot remember anything he was to say."

Plan Census of Farms in County

Plans for taking the 1964 Census of Agriculture in Lake County were announced today by Mrs. Gladys Roper, newly-appointed census crew leader for the county.

The job will be done in three stages, the crew leader said. First will come recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. About one enumerator for each 150 farms will be needed.

Shortly after November 12, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, will start the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county. This will give farm and ranch operators, who are required by law to fill out the forms, a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.

In the final stage, enumerators will visit each farm in the county to collect the questionnaires. At the time of this visit, the enumerators will help farmers complete answers to any questions the farmers may have had difficulty with. Enumerator visits are scheduled to begin in this county on November 16, 1964. Enumerators will take about three weeks to complete their work, the crew leader estimates.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and facilities, farm products sold, and use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

Tramp: "I know, mum, and you seem to be beautiful enough to go on the stage, but evidently you prefer the simple life."

She: "Step into the kitchen, and I'll see if I can't stir up a meal for you."

INFLUENCE OF THE PRESS

"The influence of what is called in modern jargon the mass media of communication (the press, popular magazines, films, radio and television) is hotly debated. Some commentators see an unholy alliance between the owners of the media and the advertising world to convert us into automatic buying machines. Others fear the cumulative effect of shoddy ideas put across in a polished and glamorous way on young people without any spiritual or aesthetic defense."

"I think that one of the most powerful influences of the Press is the kind of people it holds up as worthy of our admiration, respect, affection, or even envy."

"If someone is mentioned often enough he, himself, becomes news, and his boiled eggs for breakfast can make headlines."

"Many parents worry very much about what their children read. Would I be accused of heresy if I suggested that teaching them how to read and giving them a love of good, well-written and stimulating reading is more important than demanding the name of every book they look at? And that the best way to communicate this love of truth and beauty and vigor is to have it oneself?" M. Sterling, Democrat-Messenger.

4-H FRED SAYS...

4-H Friends, Members Join Forces, Expand Enrollment and Training

Members, leaders, friends of 4-H and the Cooperative Extension Service are joining forces to expand 4-H Club membership in every county and state in the nation. A concerted push is being made to offer 4-H training to more boys and girls between 9 and 19 years of age.

Current enrollment is around 2,224,500 members in 94,700 clubs.

The Cooperative Extension Service heads the program, and is assisted by 382,000 men and women who serve as unpaid volunteer leaders. Added to these are more than 130,000 older 4-H youths who have been trained in junior leadership.

During the last decade 4-H Clubs have been established in urban and rural non-farm homes which today account for 52 per cent of the total membership.

Science Added
Consequently some 4-H programs have been revised to meet the needs of off-the-farm members. More scientific exploration now is carried on in nearly all projects. Training in economics including production and marketing have been introduced along with home and farm management.

Business firms which contribute financial support to the various programs have assisted greatly in bringing about this modernization, reports the National 4-H Service Committee.

New programs and sponsors have been added in an attempt to bring to 4-Hers areas of learning that will aid them in making vocational or higher educational career choices.

Some business firms and foundations provide funds only for college scholarships and for recognition of individual members.

Among them are: California Chemical Company, Ortho Division; Homelite, A Division of Textron Inc.; Massey-Ferguson Inc.; Pyrofax Gas Corporation; Edwin T. Meredith Foundation; Sunbeam Corporation and The West Bend Company.

Incentive Awards

Educational trips, scholarships, and awards for outstanding work in specific projects are given by other 4-H backers. They include: Allied Chemical Corporation, Arcadian Products Dept.; Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co.; Farm Equipment Division; American Forest Products Industries, Inc.; Carnation Company; Chicago Board of Trade; Citrus Service Oil Company; E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, Inc.; Elgin National Watch Company; Eli Lilly and Company; Helsdorf & Nelson Farms, Inc.; Hercules Powder Company.

Others are: Humble Oil & Refining Company; Ford Motor Company Fund; International Minerals and Chemical Corporation; Moorman Mfg. Co.; Oliver Corporation; The Pure Oil Company; Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc.; The Singer Company; The S&H Foundation; Standard Brands Incorporated and Standard Oil Company (Kentucky).

If there is no 4-H Club in the community, parents or prospective members should write or call their county extension office for information, advises the Cooperative Extension Service.

Ill. Farmers Tour Europe

Sixty-three men and women from Illinois farms recently toured Europe to learn first-hand the prospects of expanded trade between the Illinois farmers and the overseas nations.

The representatives of the Illinois Farm Bureau Trade Development Mission learned much of the prospects, and of the problems and interests of the countries visited.

The European economy, say the farmers, is booming. Workers have more money than they can find goods for which to spend it.

Agriculture has fallen behind the industrial development. European farmers can not produce enough food to meet the demand.

The pressure for expanded trade has brought a clamor for a reappraisal of tariffs, quotas and other barriers set up to maintain local prices.

Most of the countries visited were members of the Common Market. The representatives of the Farm Bureau were convinced that the Common Market, in the long run, would promote trade with the United States.

Safety Com. Warns "Use Seat Belts"

The Lake County Commission is warning people who will be traveling at Thanksgiving time to take precautions against accidents while driving.

The Commission reminds motorists that a driver has the moral responsibility to adhere to every measure of prevention to insure his safety as well as the safety of others.

Plan your trip carefully, says the Commission. Obey and comply with all traffic regulations. Have your car in good mechanical condition. Invest in seat belts and use them.

Here are six reasons why seat belts save lives and protect against major injuries:

1. Seat belts help to keep you inside the car. You are more likely to be hurt or killed if thrown out.

2. Seat belts may protect you while in the car—by reducing the force of impact against car interiors.

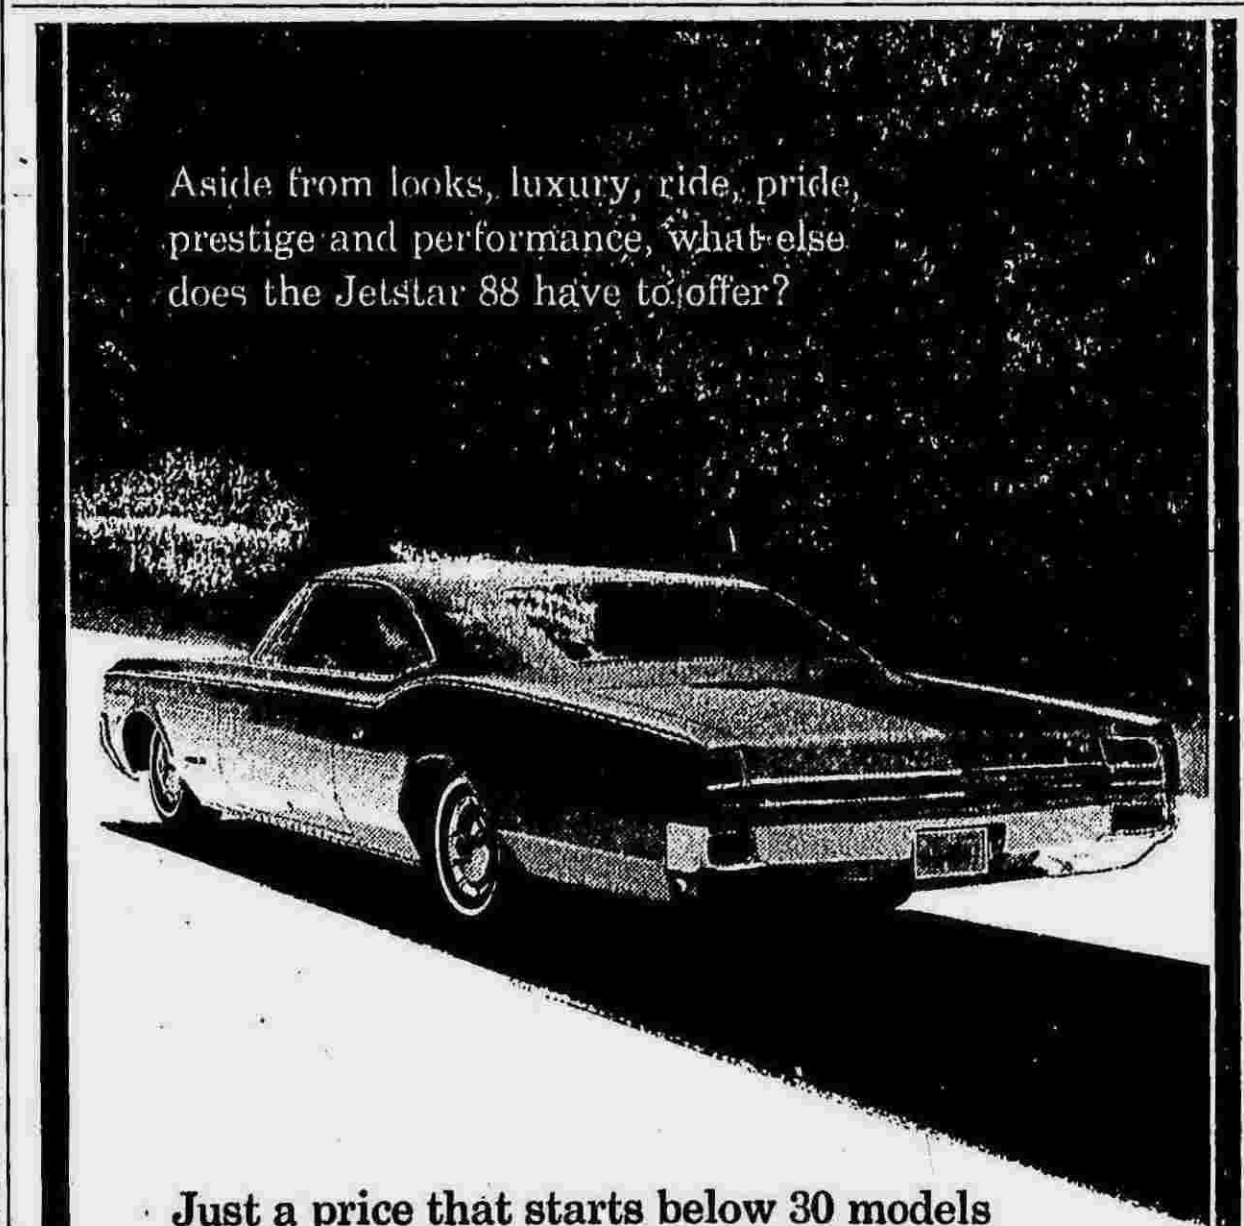

3. Seat belts save day to day bruises from sudden stops, swerves, bumps, rear end collisions.

4. Seat belts keep "little accidents" from becoming "big accidents" because you stay in your seat and can keep control of steering wheel and brake even after a collision.

5. Seat belts keep you safer in case of fire or submersion because you have a 50% better chance of remaining conscious and able to save yourself.

6. Seat belts can help you become a safer driver.

The simple act of fastening a seat belt reminds you that accidents can happen—Anywhere, Anytime.

MISS DEB

Answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. When it comes to shaking hands, I get "shock". Is it always necessary to shake hands when you're introduced to someone? I feel strange shaking hands with another girl, but I read somewhere that a guest should offer her hand to her hostess.

A. Maybe these four tips will stop you from shaking in your boots. 1. Never refuse to shake someone's hand if he or she offers it. 2. A lady may offer her hand to a man, but it is not required. 3. When being introduced to a girl your own age, a cordial "hello" can properly replace a handshake. 4. A woman should offer her hand to her host, her hostess and to her guests. Naturally, this doesn't mean you'd shake hands with Joanie after a coke and record session in the basement. But do remember the rule when you're at more formal, adult gatherings. Remember also, a woman's handshake is merely a brief touch of hands, and not a masculine grip and pump action.

Q. I spent a weekend with a girl friend who lives in another town and when I left I said thank you to both her and her mother for entertaining me. Do I have to write a thank you note, too?

A. Always write a note to your hostess when you've been a guest in her home. Of course, this doesn't apply to your girl friend down the block who stays over at your place as much as you do at hers. But on any occasion when you are actually a guest in someone's home, always follow up with a note.

Q. My hair is oily and I have to wash it so often I feel waterlogged. Is there any way to make hair less oily?

A. You can't actually make your hair less oily, but you can wash more of the oil away if you use shampoos made especially for oily hair. And you might experiment with dry shampoos for in-between touch-ups. There are several dry shampoos on the market, or you can use talcum powder. Be sure to cover every area, and brush it out very thoroughly. But remember that dry shampoos although fine as a stop-gap measure never replace regular washings. It's best to set a schedule and keep to it, every week of the month.

CHANGING STYLES

"It is reliably reported that all the major automobile manufacturers have undertaken extensive style changes, more extensive than in any year in the past decade.

"It is said manufacturers hope to maintain the booming market they have enjoyed in the current year through extensive style changes in the upcoming models.

"The last year when broad and basic model changes took place was 1955 and sales boomed as a result. Sales have been at a record pace in the current year, however, and thus the attempt is to maintain them at high levels a second consecutive year.

"Whatever the reason, millions of Americans will welcome the style changes, and will enjoy reading claims and counter claims, and studying pictures and statistical data.

Antioch Herd At Stock Show

CHICAGO—Two nationally known Lake county dairy herds will be represented this year in the competitions of the 1944 International Live Stock Exposition, to be held here November 27 to December 5. Hawthorn-Melody Farms, owned by John F. Cuneo, of Chicago, is sending a show herd of 12 purebred Holstein cattle; and Elmwood Farms, owned by Robert V. Rasmussen, Antioch, will be exhibiting 10 animals in the same competitions. This year's exposition will feature competition for 39 breeds of purebred farm animals, and total entries are expected to reach the 10,000 mark. It will fill to capacity the 13-acre International Amphitheatre at the Chicago Stock Yards. Championship Rodeo competition is scheduled at all 14 performances of the International Horse Show during the exposition's 9-day run.

Car brakes in top working condition are a must for traffic safety. But so is the ability to use your brakes properly. The Chicago Motor Club advises that you can stop more safely and effectively by pumping brakes rather than by jamming them hard. This technique not only assures safer, smoother stops, but the flashing of your brake lights gives a timely warning to the driver behind you.

An Irish tramp approached a prosperous looking individual one day, soliciting alms. When he saw the man put his hand in his pocket, the tramp cried out: "May the blessing of God follow you all of your life." But when the wealthy one pulled out only his handkerchief, the tramp immediately added: "—and never overtake you."

Danger lurks in the dark. Slow down and put safety in night driving. Keep your windshield clean inside and out especially when driving at night. Double check your wiper blades and make certain that the pressure on the arms is at least one ounce per inch of wiper blade. Keep that windshield clean and see what you are missing!

Sometimes death and injury ride the clock, especially for youngsters of school age. The most dangerous hours are between 4 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon. IHA Drafts Bills For Next State Legislature

PEORIA—A major drive to get laws enacted to prevent unnecessary hospital construction, to keep racketeers and "sharp operators" from owning hospitals and to eliminate mail order schools of nursing was announced today by the Illinois Hospital Association.

Plans of action were discussed at the association's business meeting recently in Peoria, and the proposed legislative bills were ratified by the members. The bills will be introduced when the state legislature convenes in January. One bill to be proposed would require licensing for practical nurses and would require correspondence schools for nurses to be approved by the state board of nursing to stay in business.

Many merchants would be surprised to know how much business they lose through giving customers the business in the traffic lanes. Just try adding horse sense to that horse power.

When driving on city streets, country lanes, or state routes, signal your intention well ahead of your movement. Lane changing, passing and turning all require knowledge of other drivers' intentions. Keep an eye out for the cars in front, behind and around you. And use your tell-tales—turn signals and horn as law requires. That way we can see to it that you don't have an accident!

Another nursing bill to be proposed would remove the three year requirement for regular approved nursing programs and would permit two year nursing programs that could be taught in hospitals and in junior and community colleges.

The bill that would prevent construction of new hospitals without a permit would empower the state health department to prevent the construction of a new hospital if the sponsors cannot document need for additional hospital services in the area or if there is serious question about the sponsor's "qualification, background and character."

Purpose of the bill is twofold, according to Paul W. Kempe, IHA president and administrator of the Silver Cross Hospital in Joliet.

"It would protect the public interest against sponsoring groups who would allow considerations of financial gain to over-ride needs for essential and often expensive community service. It would also eliminate the inflationary effect on hospital costs that results from wasteful or badly planned hospital construction," he said.

POVERTY AND FEDERAL AID

NEVER LEAVE SMALL CHILDREN ALONE IN BATHTUB

Don't leave a small child alone in the bathtub to play with toys in the water while you answer the phone, go to the door, do an errand in some other part of the house. Remember—death by drowning occurs in less than 5 minutes. Your child could easily fall, bang his head against the tub, or become frightened, start kicking and slip and drown. When you are bathing your child let other things wait until you are finished and the child is safely out of the tub and the bathroom.

The Chicago Motor Club offers these tips for night driving: Check all your lights; keep windshield and faces of dashboard gauges clean; dim your headlights for oncoming traffic and when you come up behind a car, should the oncoming driver fail to dim his lights, guide yourself by the right edge of the road; when dusk comes, use headlights, not parking lights.

Look for this Gold Medallion when you look for a new home

It's your assurance of comfort and convenience only available through flameless all-electric living

Whenever you see this Gold Medallion on a home, it tells you the home has met these four basic requirements:

- * It has flameless electric home heating for clean, even heat free of annoying cold drafts and sudden hot blasts.
- * It has major electric appliances that take over routine jobs and give the homemaker more time in pursuit of activities that promote the total well being of her family.

- * It has full housepower wiring, with sufficient circuits, switches and outlets—plus provision for additional appliances and future home needs.
- * It has light for living planned not only to provide proper illumination, but also to add beauty and dramatic accents to home decor.

The Gold Medallion is a symbol of comfort and convenience. It identifies a home whose owners enjoy the wonderful benefits of total electric living. And it is an assurance that the Gold Medallion home that displays it will be as modern tomorrow as it is today.

Sequoits Edged By Bulldogs, 13-7

The Sequoits lost a touch-and-go football game to Wauconda's Bulldogs last Saturday on their home field by a score of 13-7.

The Bulldogs scored the winning touchdown late in the third quarter on a pass-run-lateral from DeNova to Barth to Curtie. The play was good for 44 yards and a touchdown. Antioch's Wally Hennings blocked Barth's try for the point-after-touchdown, and the score stood 13-7, the final score.

The first quarter ended in a 0-0 deadlock. Antioch drew first blood early in the second quarter, with a 64-yard drive, capped by Tom Morgan's seven-yard dash across the goal line. Stan Revell booted the PAT and the score stood Antioch 7, Wauconda 0.

Wauconda took the kickoff and tied the score with a pass-run play from DeNova to Ciesil. Barth kicked the PAT, and the half ended 7-7.

Early in the third quarter, Antioch marched from their own 10-yard line to Wauconda's 13-yard line. A pass play from Fabry to Sterbenz, good for 37 yards was the highlight of the drive. The determined Bulldogs held and took over on their own 13-yard line, and their razzle-dazzle lateral scored the winning TD.

Antioch threatened in the final period, when Morgan received a Wauconda punt on Wauconda's 45 and ran to the 31-yard line, with 5 minutes and 36 seconds left in the game. Fabry lost a yard, and Morgan gained to the 18. Blackman ran off guard for a 3-yard gain, then ran again for five. With 4th down and 2 to go, Antioch couldn't budge the Bulldogs for a first down and the drive died on the Wauconda 10-yard line. Wauconda took over and killed time till the clock ran out.

Paul Lindblad, Tyrone Walls and Frank Dowling were lost early in the game by injuries. "Paul Williams, Bob Flood, Bill Meyer, and Tom Tantlinger did an outstanding job on defense," Coach Roy Nelson commented. "Outstanding on our offense were Paul Lindblad, Tom Morgan, Dave Fabry and Tom Blackman at quarterback."

Final Race At Dragway

The Great Lakes Dragway will close out the eighth year of drag racing with a big two day "end of season championship" event this Saturday and Sunday, November 14 and 15.

Most of the cars and drivers that have competed throughout the year will be entered in this last big event for 1984. Included will be many of the powerful nitro fuel and gas dragsters that have made the Great Lakes Dragway one of the most famous dragstrips in the nation for so many years.

Up to 300 cars are expected to compete each day with a complete separate race program scheduled for each day. Besides drivers from Wisconsin and Illinois, entries from many of the surrounding states are already entered.

NICC Turkey Shoot Draws 500 Marksmen

By Harry M. Stern

If you think that loud barrage of gunfire coming from west of Antioch last Sunday was a raid by the Viet Cong, it wasn't. Over 500 shotgun enthusiasts blew up some 3500 shells in their successful foray to load up the family larder with over one hundred plump turkeys and fat young ducks at the Northern Illinois Conservation Club's third annual pre-Armistice day turkey shoot.

Early fog prevented shooting because of low visibility, but as the day wore on the fog lifted, and with it the shooters' spirits as they came out in droves, and by afternoon there was a lineup of twelve to fourteen squads waiting to shoot. By dark, all those who wanted to shoot had their turn at the birds with the clay feathers.

Shooters came from three counties in Wisconsin, and from sixteen in Illinois, including one Illinoisan from 350 miles south of here.

All of the net proceeds of this shoot were earmarked for the NICC, conservation and youth programs.

Trap shoot co-chairmen Ernie DeLabio and Bill Wilton announced a "meat shoot" to be held on the club grounds, Sunday, Dec. 6th. Hams, bacon and porterhouse steaks will be the quarry of the shooters at this meet. Shooting will commence at 9 a.m. and continue until dark.

Fire Potential High In Ill. Woodlands

The fire potential in Illinois woodlands is almost at the explosive stage, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, said last week.

"October of 1984 has been one of the driest in history," Lodge said. "In some parts of the state no precipitation has been recorded during the month. The forest fire situation is serious throughout Illinois and it is extremely dangerous in Southern Illinois. I urge everyone to be careful when burning brush or crop residue. Do not leave fires unattended."

Lodge said that anyone who wants to start an open fire in Pope, Hardin, Alexander, Pulaski, Jackson and Union counties must obtain a burning permit from a fire warden first. Hunters are not required to obtain burning permits for cooking fires but they must not leave them unattended.

Here are three kinds of tigers. We sell two.

(Have you priced a tiger lately?)

The quick ones are ours. The agile ones. That's a Pontiac Le Mans, top left. Fierce. You can get it with 250 hp like most people. Or 285 hp like some. That's a Pontiac GTO, above. Ferocious. Comes complete with 335-hp Trophy V-8. Bucket seats. Hurst floor shifter. Dual exhausts. Heavy-duty springs. Rodline tires. Even a real walnut dash. The whole package. Lithe. Lean. Nimble. That other tiger? A puzzled cat. He checked out a "sporty" kind of car, learned it doesn't come with fangs at that shipped-down price. You look around. You'll see.

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

First Baptist Church Of Lindenhurst

The Christian Youth Crusade from the Bronx, New York, will speak and sing at the First Baptist Church of Lindenhurst, on Nov. 16, during the morning worship service at 10:50 a.m. These eight men (who were drug addicts) and their teacher, Miss Betty Youngblood, are on their way to changing the course of history in America. They were addicted from 1 to 16 years, but have conquered this great evil with the power of Christ and the cleansing of His Blood. The story they tell is one of God's ability to transfer a sinner into a saint. They come from the Damascene Christian Church, Bronx, New York, where there are more than 200 converted drug addicts in the membership of that church. They are presently conducting a two week crusade in Minneapolis, Minn., where they are producing a one hour television presentation. After leaving the First Baptist Church here, they will begin a one week crusade in the Cleveland Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio.

The public is invited. The First Baptist Church is located at Sprucewood and Brook Lane in Lindenhurst. Prince of Peace Church

The C.Y.O. Club will receive Holy Communion next Sunday at the 8 o'clock mass. After Mass there will be a breakfast and meeting.

Robert Smith of Holy Cross Parish, Deerfield, and Patricia Wierzbicki of Prince of Peace Church will be married Nov. 14 at 12 noon.

Ladies of the parish who plan on attending the Day of Reflection on Nov. 22 at Our Lady of Cedars Retreat House, must make their reservations in advance. The Altar and Rosary Society is sponsoring the retreat that will start at 10 a.m. It will be over by 4 p.m.

St. Mark Lutheran Church
The third and final Fireside dinner and chat will be held Sunday evening at 5:30 p.m. for all whose last names begin with the letters R to Z and all who have not been able to attend before. St. Mark will have two Thanksgiving Worship services, one on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. and the other on Thanksgiving Day, at 10 a.m.

Women's Club to Elect

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will hold its election of officers at the November 12 meeting at 8 p.m. Running for president are Mrs. Douglas Ploss and Mrs. Donald Leavy; for office of vice president, Mrs. Donald Bogda; secretary, Mrs. Ernest Kockler; treasurer, Mrs. Jack Thompson.

Running on the executive board are Mrs. Donald Piefer, Mrs. Thor Neumann, Mrs. Raymond Caldwell and Mrs. Jonny Volpentesta. Two are to be elected.

New Baby

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang (Sharon) Berthold of 2405 E. Valley Drive, on the birth of their third child, and first daughter, Sandra Rae was born November 1 at St. Therese Hospital.

Attends Funeral

Denver Shore flew to Kitzmiller, Maryland, last Thursday to attend the funeral of his uncle. From there he went to visit his parents in Canton, Ohio. He flew back Saturday evening.

Garden Club Designs

Mrs. Marge Fabrey, president of the Lindenhurst Garden Club, showed members how to design a Christmas tree centerpiece from chicken wire, styrofoam and pine branches, at Monday's meeting. Small ornaments or red and white carnations in holders could be used for color. Other decorations were described. Mrs. Gerald Hazel was hostess.

No date was set for the workshop to make Christmas wreaths for the Hooper School and Civic Center.

The Christmas meeting will be held Dec. 7, at the home of Mrs. Hubert Nechot on Witchwood Lane.

Anniversary

Congratulations to Gene and Mary Wiczorek on their tenth wedding anniversary, Nov. 6. To celebrate the occasion they had dinner at George Diamond's Saturday evening, and then attended the Policemen's dance at the civic center.

Regarding Sewers

Before you vote No on the proposition Saturday, think it over good. Would you be able to sell your homes without taking a loss, without sewers? What would you do if you had a septic problem? It's too bad more people couldn't have spent a couple hours at last week's meeting to hear what the health department had to say about the need for sewers in this community. There would be no doubt in your mind, how you should vote.

The Paul Wright family recently moved to Madison.

Attends Luncheon

Last Thursday several of the Lakeland Publishers' correspondents attended a luncheon at the Renwood Country Club as guests of the publisher, Marshall Schroeder. Renewing acquaintances and making new ones during the cocktail hour and luncheon was pleasant. Each correspondent received a gift from a grab-bag such as a pop-up lookpick holder, perpetual calendar, salt and pepper shakers or an ashtray.

Fly-Ups

Troop 126 had a Fly-up ceremony for Brownies Kathleen Martinez, Patricia McSorley, Gail Bickensdorfer and Sharon Gibbs. Edwina Nauer received a pin, because she wasn't in scouting before. The girls will now go into Mrs. Aita Henry's Junior Girl Scout Troop 260. Mrs. Esther Sokup, former leader of 269 resigned as of Nov. 3. Also present for the ceremony, besides Mrs. Henry, was Mrs. Lester Surack organizer.

Stuck With Sticker? Use Soap or Solvent

Some of those election stickers that were so popular a week ago may stick with you longer than expected, says the Chicago Motor Club.

If you had to wot the sticker to put it on your car, you're in luck. Soap, hot water and a little elbow grease will remove it.

But if it's the dry-type sticker, you may remove the paint from your car along with the sticker. You may have to use some type of solvent, such as acetone, alcohol or methyl ethyl ketone.

In that case, you're in luck if you confined your enthusiasm to the bumper. The solvent, unless used with care, will remove the paint from the body of the car.

Dr. To Tell Progress Of Cancer Control Program

An after-luncheon talk on "Reflections on the Fifth National Cancer Congress" by Roger A. Harvey, M.D., 14 South Elm St., Hinsdale, president of the Illinois Division of the American Cancer Society, will climax the program of the Society's Seventh District meeting to be held Wednesday, Nov. 18, in the Oak Park Arms Hotel, 408 South Oak Park Avenue, Oak Park.

Dr. Harvey, who is Professor and Head, Department of Radiology, University of Illinois College of Medicine, was program chairman of the Fifth National Cancer Congress held recently in Philadelphia under co-sponsorship of the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute, and will discuss some of the outstanding points emphasized at this meeting.

The District meeting, which will emphasize the progress being made in the overall cancer control program of the American Cancer Society is announced by Dr. A. H. Sommers, chairman, Lake county unit. He says that 175 volunteers are expected to be present at the opening session which convenes at 9:50 a.m., following a registration and social coffee hour which begins at nine o'clock.

Chairman Sommers says that representatives will be present from the following units which comprise the Seventh District: Chicago, DuPage County, Lake County, North Shore, Northwest Suburban, South Suburban, Southwest Suburban and West Suburban.

Many drivers play a form of Russian roulette when they go hurtling into the black hole of darkness at a speed which makes it impossible to stop within the distance we can see. Vision studies show that your sight distance shrinks the faster you go. Use these rules of reason for driving at night: Drive 10 miles slower than you usually do in daylight. Know your stopping distance and never overdrive your headlights. Dim your lights when meeting and following. And drive always according to the rules of the road.

Tips From The Tackle Box

By B. F. Gladding

LEAD IN THE HEAD!

Use a lead core line for fly fishing? Sounds crazy, but a shooting head of lead core line is the answer to deep water fly fishing. The secret lies in a unique line called the "Mark Five Special," a product of B. F. Gladding & Co., Inc., of South Otselle, New York, the only lead core line on the market with a hard, glossy fly-line finish.

A 30-foot shooting head of this line in 18 pound test will balance the action of the powerful rod needed for this business. This should be smoothly spliced to as much 20 to 30 pound test monofilament as is needed for running line. Splice a short length of the same to the opposite end and build up leaders from that.

Don't false cast. Work the head clear of the guides and strip monofilament from the reel for the shoot. Make a single back cast, beef into it with the rod and turn the shooting line loose. The lead core head will take off with the speed of an arrow, carrying an amazing yardage of monofilament behind it on the "shoot."

But the real objective is to get the fly—usually a streamer—down to the fish. The lead head quickly does that, permitting you to make close-to-bottom retrieves in really deep water.

Salt water fly fishermen have been foremost in taking advantage of this boon, but the field is wide open to fresh water anglers. Land-locked salmon, lakies, trout, bass and walleyes usually go deep in hot weather. Yet they'll all smack a streamer—if you get it down to 'em.

Pond Safety Kits Will Soon Be Available

The Board of Directors of the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation District met in regular session this week at the Farm Bureau Building in Grayslake, according to S. Burton Lee, Chairman of the board.

Associate Director Harold Alvin announced that letters are being sent to all schools in Lake County advising them of the contest to design a Conservation Letterhead to be used by the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation District in their newsletter or on their stationery.

Mr. Alvin announced that the first issue of the new Conservation Newsletter was sent out on October 15 and has created considerable interest in the activities of the District.

Tentative plans were developed for the annual meeting to be held on Saturday, February 6 at the Farm Bureau Building. A noon luncheon is planned, followed by a Conservation program.

Farm Pond Safety Kits will be available about Dec. 1. This kit will contain all of the items needed for "drown-proofing" farm ponds.

An educational film "Waterbill U.S.A." is currently being offered to schools in Lake County, in addition to the film "The Earth is the Lord's," which has been offered for the past several years.

Approval was given for assistance to the following Lake County property owners: J. Horace, and Quaker Oats Co. of Libertyville Township, Mr. U. Woodard of Cuba Township, and Mr. Alain Wood Prince of Newport Township. Other property owners in Lake County who are making plans for Soil and Water Conservation may contact the District Office at 71 South Old Rand Road, in Lake Zurich, for information. The telephone number is GE 8-1281.

The December meeting is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 7 at the Farm Bureau building at 8 p.m.

DRINKING

One of the most alarming aspects of the drinking monster is the spreading of its injurious tentacles into the teenage world. There is little doubt—drinking is a pressing problem not only among the adults, but also with the nation's youth. A teenager with enough individuality and personal integrity to say "No" to the first offered drink is worthy of admiration—and owes no one an apology—The Vandalia Leader.

Bewildered

An army camp in Texas, located on a wide open plain, was exposed to howling winds. One day during maneuvers, a young soldier came floating down into camp. He was rather badly bruised but didn't get much sympathy.

"What do you mean by coming down in a parachute with this 100-mile-an-hour wind blowing?" asked one of his superiors. "It's a wonder you weren't killed," replied the private weakly when he had pulled himself together. "You see, I didn't come down in a parachute—I went up in a tent."

LOOK BEFORE PULLING OUT

Make sure you don't suddenly pull out from a parked position into a moving traffic lane or from one lane to another without looking to see if anyone is coming; without making sure the coast is clear. For unless the driver of an approaching car sees you right away and can stop in time you are probably going to be involved in an accident that you have needlessly caused.
